

Sermon Series for February 2012

Title: "Reconnecting"

Summary: This will be a month long series of sermons based on the theme of reconnecting with some of the basic truths pertaining to God and ourselves. I almost entitled this series "Making a Comeback". For some reason I like the title "Reconnecting".

The basic idea of this series is as we begin a new year we have the opportunity to reconnect with some of the more important issues pertaining to our relationship to God.

Schedule:

February 5:

Title: "Reconnecting with the Reality of Life"

Text: Isaiah 40:27-31

Theme: Many times we feel that God isn't hearing our prayers about our circumstances. Actually He hears us and is working out the solution. We must keep believing Him and trusting Him and wait for Him to send His plan for our lives. Then and only then can we soar like the eagles.

February 12:

Title: "Reconnecting with the Love of Your Life"

Text: Proverbs 5:18-21

Theme: In these times of immorality and promiscuity there needs to be a rekindling of our relationships to our spouses. This message will call us back to our commitments in marriage and show us the downfall of turning away from those commitments.

February 19:

Title: "Reconnecting with your Relationship to God"

Text: Isaiah 1:16-20

Theme: The people of God had gotten into such a terrible spiritual condition that God could no longer accept their acts of worship, nor could He attend their meetings. In this message we will see how God still loves His people and calls for us to come back to Him so He can restore and bless us.

February 26:

Title: "Reconnecting with your Commitments"

Text: Ecc 5:1-5

Theme: In this message we will be reminded to keep the commitments we have made to God in the past. Many times we are missing the present blessings of God because we have not kept the commitments we have made to Him in the past.
